

DONNE BROWNSEY

Donne Brownsey, Vice-President of Sacramento Advocates, Inc. was one of the first women to found her own lobbying firm, Government Solutions in 1993, after serving for over a decade in top legislative staff positions, including eight years as Chief Legislative Consultant to the leader of the State Senate. Having merged her highly successful business with Sacramento Advocates in 2004, Ms. Brownsey provides government relations services that include legislative and state government advocacy and strategic consultation services. Ms. Brownsey's current clients include Academy of California Adoption Lawyers, the Breast Cancer Fund, the California Dispute Resolution Council, California Opioid Maintenance Providers, Commonwealth, Compassion & Choices, County Elections Officials of California, JAMS, PV Now (solar manufacturers), TEVA (generic pharmaceutical manufacturer), and Western Union. Ms. Brownsey has extensive contacts with most major constitutional officers and their executive staff as well as numerous directors and deputy directors of state departments as well as agency staff.

Ms. Brownsey is licensed to practice law in California. She holds a Juris Doctorate Degree from the University of Pacific's McGeorge School of Law, and a Bachelor of Arts Degree from California State University, Chico. While at CSU, Chico she served as the Controller of the then $5 million Associated Students.
