

CALIFORNIA ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY
Department of Toxic Substances Control
MEDIA ADVISORY

Arnold Schwarzenegger, Governor

Maureen Gorsen, Director

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 18, 2007

California Environmental Protection Agency and City of Sacramento Celebrates Earth Day 2007

SACRAMENTO – The California Environmental Protection Agency (Cal/EPA) and the City of Sacramento will celebrate Earth Day 2007, on Apr. 19, with events and displays at its headquarters, Sacramento City Hall, and Cesar Chavez Park. The Boards, Departments, and Office of Cal/EPA will have many items on display, including hydrogen fuel cell vehicles, a chemistry laboratory mobile lab, and displays covering a variety of environmental protection sciences.

Cal/EPA will combine its Earth Day celebration with “Take Our Children to Work” day. The agency has many interactive and educational displays for employees’ children, including the Department of Pesticide Regulation’s ever-popular ancient bugs and pesticide safety bingo.

Participants:

Cal/EPA employees and their families

- California Air Resources Board
- State Water Resources Control Board
- California Integrated Waste Management Board
- Department of Toxic Substances Control
- Department of Pesticide Regulation
- Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment

City of Sacramento

Date & Time:

Thursday, April 19, 9:30 a.m. – 2 p.m.

Locations:

Cal/EPA Headquarters Building
1001 I St.
Sacramento, Calif.

Sacramento City Hall and Cesar Chavez Park,
across the street from Cal/EPA Headquarters

Visuals:

Live performances sponsored by the City of Sacramento, “Who Let the Smog Out?” at 11:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. in Cesar Chavez Plaza. Children and adults exploring educational displays; hydrogen fuel cell vehicles; mobile chemical analysis laboratory. Children playing The Adventures of Vermie the Worm and Planet Polluto video games.

Contact:

Carol Northrup, (510) 407-4817

###