$6,500 Settlement Reached with Dillard Trucking, Inc.

The California Department of Toxic Substances Control (DTSC) today announced it has reached a settlement with Dillard Trucking, Inc., d.b.a. Dillard Environmental Services, for a violation of hazardous waste laws revealed during a DTSC inspection. Dillard Trucking, Inc. is a registered hazardous waste transporter located at 3120 Camino in Byron, California.

Under the terms of the Consent Order signed November 30, 2005, Dillard Trucking, Inc. agreed to pay a total settlement $6,500, which includes a penalty of $3,500 and $3,000 as reimbursement to DTSC for costs incurred in this matter.

The settlement stems from a violation observed during a DTSC inspection on August 21, 2003. DTSC inspectors noted that Dillard Trucking, Inc. held hazardous waste at a transfer facility for more than 10 days without a hazardous waste facility permit.

Dillard Trucking has corrected the violation listed in the Order.

A copy of the consent order formalizing the settlement is available on the DTSC website www.dtsc.ca.gov.
