The Department of Toxic Substances Control invites your comments on a draft Post-Closure Permit Renewal for Chevron Landfarms, at the Richmond Refinery, at eight four one (841) Chevron Way, Richmond, California.

Chevron used the Landfarms to hold oily waste. They were closed in 2000 and covered with soil and plants. Chevron must take care of the soil and plants. This Post-closure Permit is only for the Landfarms.

The Public Comment Period will take place from August first, (1st) to September twentieth (20th) two thousand sixteen (2016). Please send comments to Lewis Tai, at the Department of Toxic Substances Control, eighty eight hundred (8800) Cal Center Drive, Sacramento, California, nine, five, eight, two, six (95826) or, nine, one, six, two, five, five, three, six, one, five (916) 255-3615.

Copies of the Draft Permit Renewal and other permit documents are at the DTSC office in Sacramento.
